Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C., July 25, 1899.

paymaster-General, U.S. Army, War Department.

SIR:-

On March 13th., 1899, a letter was addressed you from this Bureau, regarding the amount of gold and silver coin exported from United States to the Philippines, for payment of U.S. troops purchases of Commissary Subsistence and Quartermaster's supplies.

On March 14th. the letter was returned with the endorsement of the Acting Paymaster-General, giving dates and amounts of shipments to and including March 5th. and also the following statement:-

"This office will in future submit immediately after each shipment, to the Mint Bureau, a statement as to kind and amount of coin shipped to Manila for use of Pay Dept. officers on duty at that point".

Since the date of that endorsement no information has been received by this Bureau as to shipments, since March 5th., and I trust that you would furnish this information from that date and thereby greatly oblige,-

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.
